

HR Statement

Our basic premise at Samdisha is that every individual employee is a resource of infinite value. Each person who works in this organization shall be treated with respect and courtesy. In view of our exhaustive selection process, Samdisha has full confidence in the capability of each individual employee. Samdisha is committed to long-term relationships in which individual growth and development are aligned with organization goals, to the best mutual benefit. We ensure highly trained, experienced and motivated employees.