

Classroom

Classroom courses continue the education process by training in many subject areas. The classroom courses are lab intensive and teach the following subjects :

System structure & Internal Structure

Database Concept & Management

System Administration

Programming (RPG, ILE, CL)

System Performance Tuning Classroom courses provide the opportunity for interaction between highly qualified Samdisha instructors and user personal. They also provide the advantage of unrestricted access to interactive equipment.