

Course Descriptions

The course descriptions contain the course abstract, objectives, and other information such as the duration and prerequisites. A level of experience is assumed for students taking each course. Therefore, it is very important that the students complete the prerequisites for each courses of have any equivalent experience level.